Who are the ELF?

The E.L.F. structure is non-hierarchical. Those involved control their own activities. There’s no centralized organization or leadership connecting anonymous cells. Likewise, there’s no official "membership". Individuals who choose to do actions under the banner of the E.L.F are driven only by personal conscience or decisions taken by their cell while adhering to the stated guidelines.¹

Who are the ALF?

Members of the Animal Liberation Front act directly to stop animal suffering, at the risk of losing their own freedom. Direct action refers to illegal actions performed to bring about animal liberation. These are usually one of two things: rescuing animals from laboratories or other places of abuse, or inflicting economic damage on animal abusers. Due to the illegal nature of ALF activities, activists work anonymously, and there is no formal organization to the ALF. There is no office, no leaders, no newsletter, and no official membership. Anyone who carries out direct action according to ALF guidelines is a member of the ALF.²

"If we are trespassing, so were the soldiers who broke down the gates of Hitler's death camps; If we are thieves, so were the members of the Underground Railroad who freed the slaves of the South; And if we are vandals, so were those who destroyed forever the gas chambers of Buchanwald and Auschwitz."
